

Elementary STEM Endorsement

The Elementary STEM Endorsement is for K-8 inservice teachers. The endorsement consist of six courses approved by the Utah State Office of Education and fulfills the requirements for an Elementary STEM Teaching Endorsement. Acceptance into the STEM Endorsement cohort is required to enroll in any of the courses.

Admission Requirement

- To be admitted, students must be licensed K-8 school teachers
- Students must maintain a B or P grade (3.0 GPA) to continue in the STEM Endorsement program

Code	Title	Hours
EDUC 5010	Data Analysis and Problem Solving in STEM	3
EDUC 5020	Nature of Science and Engineering	3
EDUC 5030	Energy in STEM Education	3
EDUC 5040	Matter in STEM Education	3
EDUC 5050	Force in STEM Education	3
EDUC 5060	STEM Practices in Technology and Problem-Based Learning	3

Completion Requirement

- 3.0 cumulative university GPA required

Licensure Requirement

- Upon successful completion of all six courses, teachers will be recommended for an Elementary STEM Endorsement through the Utah State Board of Education