BA Politics, Policy and Law Program Learning Outcomes

At the successful conclusion of this program, students will be able to:

1. Describe and apply key concepts used to study institutions, processes, and actors in politics, policymaking, and public law.
2. Investigate the interaction of politics, economics, law, and society using a diverse set of methodological tools.
3. Analyze political, policy, and legal phenomena and critique arguments in a theoretically and empirically informed manner, identifying and evaluating the credibility of sources and evidence.
4. Apply concepts and theories of politics, policy, and law through effective communication in written, oral, or active learning assessments.
